

Title: CHARACTER.

Please read to the end don't skip

Though you meant be the prettiest lady, beautiful lady, cute guy or handsome guy. And you don't have an attractive character that people can emulate from you. I supposed so; I think the intention of that expression is not to say that physical beauty is not important. I mean, you have to like someone and find them attractive before you may even have the opportunity to see all these qualities. But physical appearance alone is not enough. A truly beautiful person is someone who is real human being with a good character and nice behaviour that will attract people. Most of the human being on earth used their character to damage most of the opportunity they have seen. Some use their behaviour to stop their helper from helping them, because they don't know the different between character and behaviour.

Character is a unique or extraordinary individual, a person characterized by peculiar or notable traits, especially charisma, while behaviour is a human conduct relative to social norms. The way a living creature behaves or acts generally. Hmm, most of the married ladies today, have packed away from their husband house because of their character. Character is deadly disease that can come in a way of emotionally, mentally, physically, economically and psychologically in a life of person.

This was a statement made by one of my friend. He says " He was on his behaviour when her family visited" Eh hahaha what a bad statement , your love one's have been addicted with your behaviour, no matter how they want to persuade you, you will still misbehave.

Character can delay blessings, miracles, grace, testimonies, even trade someone helper away. You know some people are shameless. They can do anything without minding what others would think about them. Do you know what I call people like that? They are animals. Because only animals behave anyhow they like, guided only by their instincts. No morals no ethics. I know you will be thinking why I mentioned morals and ethics. Ethics are rules that guide a person's behaviour based on moral principles. Ethics are principles of right and wrong that guide the way we behave. Although there are general rules that apply to everyone, but a group of people or even individuals can develop their own standards of ethics. But in the end, they are all based on the same universal notion of right and wrong, on the same moral principle. The question we should always ask ourselves, if we are ever in doubt, is: this thing I am about to do, would I be proud of myself if others people knew about it? Would the people who love and respect me be proud of me and still respect me if they found out what I did? Answer all these questions yourselves. Thanks for taking your time to read this my speech advice title "CHARACTER" try to change or amend your behaviour so that people can emulate from you.

Title: APPRECIATION.

Please read to the end don't skip.

Appreciation is to be grateful to thankful for, to view as valuable. Note that, if some people do not appreciate and value our presence, we should work hard to make them value our absence. I must know that some people are like candles that burn themselves to give to others.....we should not have regrets if we happen to be one of such candles because it may be a reward for us tomorrow.

Always appreciate whatsoever someone gives you, though it may be a token gift or gigantic one, but a gift . People lack to say thank you whenever someone gives them something, because the person is not in a well position or an important person in the world . It might be a little child or a young adult, try to appreciate the person. Some people wait till when the person that gave them something to be in a good position before they can thank the person. In fact! Some people do not appreciate themselves because of what people says about them. They don't know that people come in all sizes, fat, slim, tall, short, dark, fair, round, square.

They are all beautiful. Everyone need to embrace the way they look and should not allow anyone to define them.....if you feel good about yourself, feel confident about yourself and carry yourself with pride, for me that is beauty. I have never seen someone that will tell me he or she is ugly. Everyone appreciate his or her beauty.

Though the person maybe ugly in your face but comeliness in others people face.. Thanks you are an expression of gratitude or politeness, in response to something done or given.

Book written by: SULAIMON SEGUN OKANLAWON

Show gratitude whenever someone gives you something because your gratitude means lots to that person, because your gratitude may make you to receive another one other time.

The privilege you have to say thank you for someone who gives you something maybe the first word the person want to hear from you.

Thank you should be the first statement you should say whenever you receive something not the last statement. Because the first statement can change your position and met even turn your tragedy into comedy. This is even astonished to me, when the wealthy people receive something from the indigent people, they lack this statement "THANK YOU" because they think they are more than what the person have them. Buy when the wealthy people gives the indigent people something the first statement they want to hear from them is "THANK YOU" So I say THANK YOU and I really appreciate your patient and love for reading the episode 2.....title " APPRECIATION" try to be appreciating whatever someone gives you.

Title: PARTNER

Please read to the end don't skip.

Hmm. A future full of possibilities start by having a partner, I mean a partner that you can talk to eat with even share your Ware's with and share your personal story with. Because when you are alone is just when a tree stand on its own, without anything supporting it.

Find a partner you can achieve your goal together with, though it may come in different way, different time and different location but the same goal.

Partners are the people of feeling, because life is a tragedy for them that think and a comedy for them that feel.

A partner that will not think about the position he or she met you, but change the position to good one. A partner planer plan is partner plans. A partner is someone who is associated with another in common activity or interest. Some people are partner less; Because of what their partner have done to them. Some partner are devils they use light to Burt their fellow best part and use water to off their own.

If you want to know the partner you owe a lots; they are the people who stand by you whenever you are in trouble. When you are in danger, when something is hitting you and you don't have anyone to tell.....they will be like" Hmm... What are you thinking?

There is something in your mind that you don't want to tell me, what it is". If you haven't hear such statement from your partner, ah something is wrong somewhere. Your true partners are those who will never avoid you just because they have met new partner. When someone called you, don't say I won't pick, when they message you don't say I won't replicate. Try to pick your calls whenever that call you and reply to all the messages they have sent to you.....not because you are a fool, moreover playing a role of a fool doesn't mean the person is fool. Life is like a circle, the way it turn to you may be different from the way it turn to others people.

Don't make your partner to feel bad, just because that show you how much they love you and care for you. Care for them the way you Care for yourself. If they annoy you tell them and don't tell the world . Lastly both partners should stop the habit of this" when both of you have misunderstanding and you later end up your friendship don't lick your secret out because you don't know what may happen tomorrow" Thanks for always waiting to hear from me.

Title: LOVE

Love is a deep feelings that one has to each other.....if someone has feeling for you....doesn't mean the person love  you. Love is strong words that support feeling. I haven't seen anyone that can tell or explain the meaning of love   it's a four letter, but a deep meaning.

Referring love and feeling to pity and compassion . Pity is a feeling of sympathy at the misfortune is suffering of someone or something. When you have pity on something or someone you won't have the intension of helping the person. While compassion mean a deep awareness of the suffering of another, coupled with the wish to relieve it.....because if you have compassion on someone you will have the intension to be a help to that person please have compassion on me and don't pity me.

Don't hurt anybody because tear is an expensive liquid water, its 1 percentage water but 99 percentage feeling, think before you hurt someone The person you love  may not love you and the person who love you, might not love the person.....such is life.

All what we just need is understanding. Some said love is a game who can play it well, will be the winner and I totally disagree with that; why would you be comparing love and game together. Well a winner doesn't quite and a quitter doesn't win. Put a smile in someone face not a tear, because we never can tell, if the smile or tear is still coming to us.

The idea of showing love to people who have no feeling for you, well...I think we can set that as a standard, as something to aspire to. It would be great to be like that, I think that is essence of all religions. But the important thing to remember is that, it is possible for you to change people simply by not behaving like them. Live is like water that flows around, if it comes to you accepts it, because the situation the water is; if it's come to you don't think it will stand there forever.

It till going to flows away. Some people play with love 🍷 like a game, remember the moment you hurt your fellow human being and another person come to cool the person hotness....my dear you lost for life. Use the privilege you have wisely.

So I use this medium to tell you that I LOVE YOU and I will be expecting such from you back.
